Virginia Beach Youth Fishing Camp

“Think Like a Fish!”
July 27-31, 2009

The Virginia Beach Fishing Camp is a fun, hands-on ecology program that teaches young anglers and marine biologists to ‘think like a fish.’ Campers will:

- Learn to fish, or improve fishing skills, under guidance expert anglers;
- Explore a salt marsh, tidal creek, oyster reef, sand-flat, Chesapeake Bay and Atlantic Ocean surf zone.
- Catch bait fish, crabs, shrimp and clam species using seine nets, cast nets, and sieves;
- Analyze marine charts to understand where to find gamefish;
- Learn fishing knots, lures and bait rig set-ups;
- Fish for saltwater gamefish using the skills we learn in camp;
- Observe the catch from a commercial fishing operation being unloaded and investigate the species of fish caught in the pound nets at the mouth of the Bay, and;
- Make ‘fish prints’-T-shirts using fish and fabric paint.
